QLD Rover Training Travel Subsidy

Interested in doing your Rover Training, but can't afford to Travel to it?

Never fear, the QBRC have financial support available.

The QLD Branch Rover Council now provides a $100 subsidy, for all QLD Rovers who need to travel more than three hours to get to their Training Course.

This is available for Travel to any Leadership Course only.

To apply for your Travel Subsidy, simply contact us at training@qldrovers.org.au, with your name, crew, course application, and how you plan to travel to the course.

Available for courses attended from 1st September 2018.
